CAPE TOWN's Victoria & Alfred Waterfront is the place to be in South Africa. With about 300 shops, over 50 restaurants and pubs, 11 movie theaters, and 6 museums, the iconic harbor is not only well equipped for all kinds of entertainment but also a supremely photogenic sight.

LOOKS RISKY? Well, there's no need for unease. As your guide will tell you, the animals around you are under the impression that the open-top jeep is another animal, and since it's bigger than they are, even the wildest ones will be respectful in your presence.

With its 100-mile ravine, Namibia's FISH RIVER CANYON is the second largest in the world, surpassed only by the Grand Canyon.

Once a bustling city full of German miners, KOLMANSKOP became a ghost town after the diamond mines closed in the 1920s.

They say that a LEOPARD never changes its spots. And one of the best spots for spotting a leopard is Etosha National Park.

AFRICAN ELEPHANTS spend about 17 hours per day eating. So, since they're out and about looking for food practically all day, you will run into them sooner or later.

Yes, it's a blast to walk up and somersault down the WORLD'S HIGHEST DUNE in the Namib Desert. Scrubbing the fine sand out of your pores afterward is another story.

British politician Cecil Rhodes is said to have told architects to build a bridge across the Zambezi River where trains will catch the spray of the gigantic VICTORIA FALLS.
